

PITTMAN DEVELOPMENT GROUP

RAY C. PITTMAN FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT

Ray C. Pittman is Founder and President of Pittman Development Group, a leading land and commercial property development company headquartered in Denver, Colorado. Pittman's background includes more than 20 years of experience in commercial real estate brokerage, services and development. During this time he has managed some of Colorado's largest and most prominent commercial and mixed-use developments.

Pittman led the team that created the vision for High Point, an 1,800-acre mixed-use community near Denver International Airport. He oversaw all aspects of the project's initial development prior to its sale to LNR Property Corporation in 2006. Other significant projects include the 295-acre Stapleton Business Center, the 1.1 million square foot Circle Point Corporate Center, the 1,789-acre Village at Avon mixed-use community, the 295-acre EastGate Commerce Center, and the proposed re-development of the 440-acre StorageTek site.

Prior to founding Pittman Development Group, Pittman served as Colorado's senior vice president and regional manager for Catellus Development Corp. In this role, Pittman initiated some of the company's most exciting projects and was responsible for overseeing all aspects of the development business, including acquisitions and dispositions, marketing, sales and leasing, project design, construction management, project financing and community and government relations.

From 1985 through 1999, Pittman served in a variety of brokerage and senior management roles with CB Richard Ellis. He was named President of Corporate Services and Global Account Management in 1998. In this position, Pittman, oversaw the development and servicing of major corporate accounts and assignments and also led the global account management team responsible for relationship management and worldwide service delivery for many of the firm's largest corporate and institutional clients. Prior to this role, Pittman held a number of management and leadership positions for CB Richard Ellis, including Executive Managing Director for the company's Midwest Region, and Executive Managing Officer for the Denver area.

Pittman graduated with high honors from the University of California, Santa Barbara and has completed additional course work in real estate and finance at the University of California, Los Angeles and Stanford University. Pittman resides in Greenwood Village, Colorado with his wife, Kristin and their three children.

DEVELOPER

KEY PRINCIPALS